Privacy Policy

Introduction

We are committed to protecting your privacy and do not pass on any information to other parties. Please read on for more details about our privacy policy.

By using our site, you consent to the collection and use of information by Barensen Engineering Ltd strictly on our behalf. If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances we disclose it.

Why we need this data and what do we do with it?

When you submit an enquiry, we may ask for your name, address and e-mail address so we can administer the request and reply to you. We also monitor customer traffic patterns and site usage to help us develop the design and layout of the site. We may also use the information we collect to occasionally notify you about important functionality changes to the site, new products and services we think you'll find valuable. If you would rather not receive this information, please send a blank e-mail with unsubscribe in the subject line to phil@barensen.co.uk

How do we protect your customer information?

Under EU and UK data protection law, we follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of information which you have given us, to prevent unauthorised access. Our security procedures mean that we may occasionally request proof of identity before we are able to disclose sensitive information to you.

Will we disclose the information we collect to outside parties?

We do not sell, trade or rent your personal information to others.
